Important Notice

Your duty of disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms. You have this duty until we agree to insure you. You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- we know or should know as an insurer; or
- we waive your duty to tell us about

If you do not tell us anything

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both. If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Retroactive date

The proposed insurance may be limited by a Retroactive Date. If so, the policy will not cover any claims or circumstances arising from any events, services, activities, errors or omissions or conduct prior to the Retroactive Date.

Subrogation

Where you have prejudiced Artisan Underwriting Pty Ltd (including its Insurers or underwriters) rights to recover a loss from another party, this may have the effect of excluding or limiting the Underwriters liability in respect of that loss.

Privacy Notice

We safeguard your privacy and the confidentiality of your personal information and are committed to handling your personal information responsibly. We comply with the Privacy Act 2020 (or as superseded or as amended from time to time), including the Information Privacy Principles (IPPs) set out in the Act. We have developed a Privacy Policy that outlines how we collect, store, use, and disclose your personal information. Please refer to our website below for a copy of our Privacy Policy.
